An Update from U.S. Army Reserve Headquarters

Your Mid-Month Pay

April 14, 2011

Army Reserve Soldiers, Civilians, and Families,

We'd like to draw your attention to a message published on the Defense Finance and Accounting (DFAS) home page. For your convenience, it is copied below. You can also click the link provided to read the DFAS press release dated April 11 for additional information.

Your resilience during a period of uncertainty demonstrates yet again why the Army Reserve is the premier force provider of America's Citizen-Soldiers. Thank you for your dedication and sacrifices in support of our Nation. Your well-being remains our primary concern.

LES and ADVICE OF PAY UPDATE:

(Read our April 11 press release)

We have restored access to all Leave and Earnings Statements (LESes), Net Pay Advice or Advice of Pay for Active Duty Military and Reservists.

PLEASE NOTE -- Active Duty: You will receive your full mid-month pay by April 15, but the most current Advice of Pays will still only show the partial payments for April 1-8. This will allow us to make sure we can still process pay for April 9 -15 and take steps to ensure it is in bank accounts by the 15th. A full accounting of your April pay will be available on your normal end of month Leave and Earnings Statement, posted to your myPay account on April 22, 2011.

PLEASE NOTE-- Reservists: You will receive your full mid-month pay on April 15, but the most current Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) will still only show the partial payments for April 1-8. This will allow us to still process pay for April 9-15 and take steps to ensure it is in bank accounts by the 15th. A full accounting of your April pay will be available on your normal end of month LES, posted to your myPay account on April 22, 2011.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. The good news is we can ensure you will receive your normal pay on April 15.

PAY STATUS:

All military and reservists will receive full pay on April 15 for duty served. There will be more than one deposit into your account, but again, all payments will be deposited on April 15. Check with your bank to confirm the amount deposited into your account on the 15th.

Civilian Pay is not impacted in any way.
